

OUR WHOLE COUNTRY IS BOWED IN GRIEF TODAY

The President died at 2:15 this morning. Last conscious hour spent with his devoted wife. He was reconciled to his fate and murmured: "Good bye, all. Good bye. It is God's way. His will be done."

Milburn House, Buffalo, Sept. 14.—President McKinley died at 2:15 o'clock this morning. He had been unconscious since 7:30 p. m.

Members of the family with the exception of the bereaved wife were at the deathbed. Mrs. McKinley was in an adjoining room. Dr. Riley was the only physician present.

Secretary Cortelyou made the announcement. He came out of the Milburn house, and walked slowly toward the newspaper men, who were congregated behind the rope bar.

"The president died at a quarter after 2 o'clock," said he, in an even tone. He then turned and walked back to the house.

Secretary Long was deeply affected as he came from the house at 1:45 o'clock. He had seen the president and had given his hand a farewell grasp.

The president's last conscious hour on earth was spent with the wife to whom he devoted a life of care. He died unattended by a minister of the gospel, but his last words were an humble submission to the will of the God in whom he believed. He was reconciled to the cruel fate to which an assassin's bullet had condemned him and faced death in the same spirit of calmness and peace which had marked his long and honorable career. His last conscious words were those written by Dr. Maun, who stood at his bedside, when they were uttered were as follows:

"Good bye, all. Good bye. It is God's way. His will be done."

His relatives and the members of his official family were at the Milburn house, except Secretary Wilson, who did not avail himself of the opportunity. Some others of his personal and political friends also took leave of him. This painful ceremony was simple. His friends came to the door of the sick room, took a longing glance at him and turned tearfully away. He was practically unconscious during this time. But the powerful heart stimulants, including oxygen, were employed to restore him to consciousness for his final parting with his wife. He asked for her and she sat at his side and held his hand. He consoled her and bade her good bye. She went through the heart-breaking scene with the same bravery and fortitude with which she has borne the grief of the tragedy which ended his life.

The immediate cause of the president's death is undetermined. His physicians disagree and possibly will require an autopsy to fix the exact cause. The president's remains will be taken to Washington and there will be a state funeral.

NORROWFUL NEWS

Princeton, N. J., Sept. 14.—Former President Grover Cleveland, when told of President McKinley's serious sinking spell, said:

"This is very sorrowful news."

When asked if he would say anything regarding the president's death, he replied that he thought it would be out of place to say anything at present.

MRS. MCKINLEY VERY WELL

Buffalo, Sept. 14.—Mrs. McKinley has stood the shock of the president's death remarkably well. Her conduct during the trying days since the assassination have surprised her closest friends. Instead of the one who leans she was Mr. McKinley's strongest support during his painful hours. Every day she was taken into the room for an hour or so and all the attendants withdrew. Several times on coming out it was observed that the ordeal was a very trying one on her but she showed wonderful strength when it was most needed.

CABINET MEETS TODAY

Buffalo, Sept. 14.—The cabinet met at 10 o'clock this morning to discuss the president's death and to make arrangements for the funeral. It is now thought that the body will be taken to Washington tomorrow to lie in state for one day, and then be taken to Canton for burial. The first reports were that Mr. Roosevelt would be sworn in wherever he happened to be when the news of the president's death reached him. This was not done however. He is expected to reach Buffalo at noon.

ROOSEVELT'S CABINET

Buffalo, Sept. 14.—In all probability Mr. Roosevelt will not call an extra session of congress but will ask all of the present cabinet officials to serve with him. Mr. McKinley was fortunate in having one of the best cabinets that the country has ever had.

THE COUNTRY MOURNS

New York, Sept. 14.—All over the entire country bells are tolling, flags are at half mast and other manifestations of great grief are being shown. From north, east, south and west come the same reports. Businesses houses are draped in mourning, and in many places business is entirely suspended.

WASHINGTON'S GRIEF

Washington, Sept. 14.—The city is shrouded in gloom over the president's death and the stores and all public buildings are closed, and special services are being held at places of worship.

NO FINANCIAL DISTURBANCE

New York, Sept. 14.—The leading financial authorities say there will be no disturbance to business, but there should be it will be only temporary. They consider the market thoroughly tested. A fairly good bank statement was shown.

PUBLIC BUILDINGS TO BE DRAPED

Mayor Lang this morning ordered all the public buildings under control of the city to be draped in mourning. This will include the fire stations, city hospital, electric light plant and other structures. A similar order will be issued by the proper authorities for draping the school buildings, and county court house. Many private residences will also be draped with black.

GOVERNMENT BUILDINGS NOT DRAPED

The census house will be the only public building here not draped. The department has ruled as follows, stating its ruling on the United States statutes, Vol. 27, page 715, section 5: Draping buildings is prohibited by law. Hereafter no building occupied or used by the government for public purposes shall be draped in mourning and no part of public funds shall be used for such purpose.

THE SCHOOLS CLOSE

An order was this morning issued to close the public school buildings, and the work will begin this afternoon. It is announced that there will be no school on the day of the funeral.

STRANGE COINCIDENCE

It is rather a strange coincidence that twenty years ago within four days, President Garfield died from the wound of an assassin. He was an Ohio man, and the vice president, Mr. Arthur, who succeeded him, was a New Yorker. Today President McKinley, who was from Ohio, died and was succeeded by Mr. Roosevelt, a New York man.

READY FOR THE OATH

Buffalo, Sept. 14.—President Roosevelt arrives, and is ready for the oath. Mrs. McKinley still exhibits great courage, and is sitting up talking with relatives.

STRANGELY PROPHECIC

St. Paul, Minn., September 14.—"For who could guarantee that some calamity in September they might not see in huge type on the front page of the newspapers 'The President Assassinated.'"

The above words occur in Munsey's Magazine of last April. They are a part of an article written by Edwin Lefer, entitled "Boon Days in Wall Street." It is a description of the stock market at the time of some of the big booms in Wall street, and shows how one of the big booms in Wall street was started. It was not intended as a prophecy of President McKinley's assassination, yet it seems ominously prophetic now.

I did not want him to run a second time. I thought he had done enough for the country. He is just the same tender, thoughtful, and now I know that he has done enough. THE GRAND JURY REPORTS

The Term of the Jury Extended Another Week—No Court This Afternoon.

PRISONERS PROBABLE RELEASE

Circuit court adjourned at noon today until Monday, and the time of the grand jury was extended one week.

Minnie Dawson was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary for the offense of grand larceny. She stole clothing from Mrs. Cliff Barnett.

In the case of Adam Temple against T. W. Warfield the motion of the defendant to set aside the judgment was overruled but an appeal was prayed and granted. The case will now go to the court of appeals.

Buck McGeehee, colored, who was charged with obtaining money by false pretenses, filed a certificate from Dr. Pendley, of ill health, and was probably released. He was paroled from the penitentiary recently because he has consumption.

The grand jury returned the following indictments: Henry Johnson, grand larceny; J. L. Lagore, selling liquor on Sunday; Sam Nichols, selling liquor on Sunday; two against Henry Schmitt, one for selling liquor on Sunday and the other for maintaining a nuisance. The case against John Carr, for malicious shooting, was ignored.

The petty jury case against James Hodge was continued and set for the second day of the next term of court. The case against Josie White, for robbery, was continued and set for the second day of the next term.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT IS NOW PRESIDENT.

Al Foley, charged with stealing brass at the Decker mill, was sentenced to one month in the county jail for petty larceny.

The case against Jessie White, charged with having stolen $64 from a negro deckhand, was continued until December.

Edith Donahue was adjudged an idiot and her parents appointed a committee to care for her.

THE CITY SCHOOLS

The enrollment of pupils in the Paducah public schools shows a remarkable increase, even at the present time the enrollment is much larger than it was last year at the end of the first month and the schools have been engaged only one week.

Last year at the end of the first month the enrollment showed 2575 and at present, at the end of the first week, the enrollment is 2583, an increase of five pupils three weeks in advance. At the end of the month it will be increased probably three hundred if the attendance increases in proportion as it did last year.

The attendance in the high school is also greatly increased, the present enrollment showing 34 in the Eleventh, 44 in the Tenth and 60 in the Ninth grades, making a total of 138, while at the close of the first month last year the attendance was only 126. The enrollment in the graduating class is 34 with ten boys, the enrollment of the latter being heavier than in the past several years.

The tuition pupils, those who come from other cities to attend the schools are more numerous this year than ever before and this is very gratifying to the teachers. It is considered the best compliment that can be paid the schools. The total enrollment of the tuition pupils had not yet been made out but it will probably reach 100. The rates of the tuition are for the primary grades $1.50 per month and in the grammar and high schools the fee is $2.50. Every year quite a neat sum is derived from the tuition pupils and last year the money was appropriated for the library case.

This year the board will be asked to allow for a library. It is thought that the money will be allowed them. There will be another teacher placed in the first grade at the Franklin building, on South Sixth street. There is an enrollment of 65 in that grade and which is more than one teacher can handle. The room will be divided and two teachers installed. Miss Mittie Cayce, who holds one of the most excellent teachers' certificates of any teacher in the primary grades has been appointed to the position. Miss Mabel Mitchell has been appointed substitute in the place of Mrs. Minnie Herndon and Miss Bertha Kettler is acting as substitute in the absence of Miss Mattie Sherwin.

If the commercial course now under consideration is added Sept. Hatfield thinks it will increase the attendance 100 a year.

CONSTITUTION CHANGES.

MR. CLARK HOWELL ACQUIRES A CONTROLLING INTEREST IN THE ATLANTA.

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 14.—Announcement is made today that Clark Howell has acquired a majority of the stock of the Atlanta Constitution, having purchased the full interest of Col. W. A. Humphill in the company. This with Mr. Howell's present holdings gives him a majority of the five thousand shares of the capital stock of the company, valued at $500,000.

Mr. Howell has been in editorial control of the paper for ten years, succeeding Henry W. Grady as managing editor on the latter's death, and now becomes also the President of the company.

HALF AN INCH RAINFALL. The rainfall last night as reported by Observer Borneman, was .56 of an inch.

ROOSEVELT TRAIN DELAYED

Buffalo, Sept. 14.—The train bringing Vice President Roosevelt to the city was late in arriving. Arrangements have been made to administer the oath of office at the residence of Ansley Wilcox.

BUSINESS NEWS

Clearings this week, $426,155. Last year same time, $446,095. Increase, $19,940.

Bank clearings show a wonderful increase again this week. The total is $426,155, an increase over last year of $19,940. Money is tight at the money centers on account of the crop movements, the shipments from New York this month to the south and west have been larger than for any other year. It is not thought that the death of the president will have more than a temporary depressing effect on business by local financiers. All agree that the prosperity is too general and substantial to be affected more than sympathetically, and temporarily.

Wholesale trade has been very active the past week and the shipments have been large. Fair trade has been set in earnest and all local merchants wear a pleasant look. The dry goods men, the grocery men, the queensware houses, clothing and hat and cap houses have had excellent trade. For July and August the volume of business fell behind last year's record but from indications September will run way ahead.

The Lack Singletree company shipped some good sized bills this week and have others on the books to go out every week from now on. They are doing the best business of their history and this week turned down splendid orders on account of the rush on hands.

The second street merchants are all feeling enthused over the prospects for fall business and expect one of the very best years of their career. The tobacco crop report is very fine. Some reports are that farmers will be crowded for storage room. A good deal of the crop has already been housed.

Prices of stuff on the local market.

Mr. Ansley Wilcox, at whose home he will be the guest.

ROOSEVELT ARRIVES.

Buffalo, Sept. 14.—Mr. Roosevelt arrived at Buffalo this morning.

continue in reach with the supply still generous. There is no let up in the building activity, and the contractors have about all they can attend to. The Rndy-Phillips house, and Ogilvie's building will be ready for occupancy in a few weeks now.

Retail merchants are having some advanced fall buying, but very little. The railroad companies report both freight and passenger business very heavy.

THIRD TIME.

George O. Hart's Entered Again By Thieves Last Night.

Pistols, Knives and Razors Stolen—The Police Have No Clue.

The hardware establishment of Geo. O. Hart and Son was broken into last night for the third time within the past month. It is thought that the burglary was committed by the same party that committed the other two similar offenses. Entry was gained through a back window by the roof, the men entering from the roof after smashing out the window with a large rock.

They secured thirteen pistols and several dozen knives and razors, the exact number of the latter articles not having yet been determined. The total loss is estimated to be somewhere in the neighborhood of $300 and the case is in the hands of the police. The theft was first discovered when the store was opened this morning and a search of the building revealed the manner in which entrance had been gained. There is no clue.

WASHINGTON'S GRIEF.

Washington, Sept. 14.—The city is shrouded in gloom over the president's death and the stores and public buildings are closed, and special services are being held at places of worship.

Mr. McKinley was the most popular President Washington's present generation can remember and the sorrow on all hands is touching.

FIRST NEWS AT WASHINGTON.

Washington, Sept. 14.—The news of the death of President McKinley came as a crushing blow to the nation's capital. Nowhere, perhaps, did the citizens live so full of confidence in the ultimate recovery of their beloved president and the momentary belief of the past week from the sick bed had lulled them into a false sense of security which made the shock terrible when the news that the Buffalo tragedy had a fatal ending came to them. All day long the bulletin boards were surrounded by crowds waiting for suppressed excitement for the latest word from the Millburn home and numerous newspapers extras were eagerly snapped up.

NO EXTRA SESSION.

There is discussion among public men in the city of the probability of an extra session of congress on the day of the president's death. The consensus of opinion was that no such changes or important departures in public policy were at all likely for some time to come, and congress would not be assembled until its regular session in December. All the cabinet, the chief diplomatic officials and the heads of important bureaus according to custom will tender their resignations to relieve the president of embarrassment, but it is believed Mr. Roosevelt would follow the precedent set by President Arthur, after Garfield's death, and request them to continue in office.

Some of the cabinet officers are not in good health, and would sincerely welcome relief from their offices.

SENATOR HANNA CRUSHED.

Buffalo, Sept. 14.—Senator Hanna, who with his great grief called this morning to comfort the wife of his late friend. The meeting was touching. The friendship of Mr. Hanna for the dead president was remarkable and was often the subject of comment. They had been friends for years.

ARCH FRENDS' FATE.

Buffalo, Sept. 14.—There have been no indications of demonstrations against Catholics today but great preparations have been taken to guard against such a thing. It is rare that he will get the death penalty under the New York law, which means electrocution.

THE FUNERAL.

ABOUT WEDNESDAY.

Buffalo, Sept. 14.—It has been decided that there will be a state funeral about Wednesday in Washington.

EXPOSITION MAY BE CLOSED.

Buffalo, Sept. 14.—Officials of the Pan-American exposition are in consultation in the Buffalo club in regard to closing of the fair.

The fair will be closed Saturday, Sunday and Monday any way.

STATE FUNERAL.

Buffalo, Sept. 14.—The cabinet has decided on a state funeral in Washington and the body will be taken there Monday morning.

MANY BUILDINGS IN MOURNING.

The work of draping stores and residences began this morning in many parts of the city, and in a short time, doubtless most of the stores and homes in Paducah will have their hangings of black. The inclement weather prevented many from putting out the mourning today.

STATE DEPARTMENTS CLOSED TODAY.

Frankfort, Sept. 14.—Gov. Fleck today morning issued a proclamation deploring the death of President McKinley, and ordering all state departments closed today in his honor.

"Do you know Major McKinley?" asked Mrs. McKinley of a visitor at New Orleans during the trip across the continent this spring. "Ah, no, one can know him, because to appreciate him one must know him as I do," and she was speaking now of Major McKinley as the president. "I am speaking of him as my husband. I never forget him, no matter how long it is since I saw him. I did not want to run a second time. I thought I had done enough for the country, and now I know that he has done enough, and when his term expires he will come home and we will settle down quietly and he will belong to me."

The case against John Carr, for malicious shooting, was "ignored."

BUSINESS NEWS

Clearings this week, $626,185. Last year same time, $116,093. Increase, $510,092.

Bank clearings show a wonderful increase again this week. The total is $626,185, an increase over last year of $510,092. Money is tight at the money centers on account of the crop movements, the shipments from New York this month to the south and west have been larger than for any other year.

It is not thought that the death of the president will have more than a temporary depressing effect on business by local financiers. All agree that the prosperity is too general and substantial to be affected more than sympathetically, and temporarily.

Wholesale trade has been very active the past week and the shipments have been large. Fall trade has seemingly set in in earnest and all local merchants wear a pleasant look. The dry goods, the grocery men, the queensware houses, clothing and hat and cap houses have had excellent trade. For July and August the volume of business fell behind last year's, report but from indications September will run way ahead.

The Lack Singletree company shipped some good steel this week and have others on the books to go out every week from now on. They are doing the best business of their history and this week turned down splendid orders on account of the rush on hands.

The second street warehouse are all feeling enthused over the prospects for fall business and expect one of the very best years of their career.

The tobacco crop report is very fine. Some reports are that farmers will be provided for storage room. A good deal of the crop has already been housed.

Prices of stuff on the local market.

THIRD TIME.

George O. Hart's Entered Again By Thieves Last Night.

Pistols, Knives and Razors Stolen—The Police Have No Clue.

The hardware establishment of Geo. O. Hart and Son was broken into last night for the third time within the past month. It is thought that the burglary was committed by the same gang that committed the other two similar offenses. Entry was gained through a back window by the roof, the men entering from the roof after smashing out the window with a large rock.

They secured thirteen pistols and several dozen knives and razors, the exact number of the latter articles not having yet been determined.

The total loss is estimated to be somewhere in the neighborhood of $300 and the case is in the hands of the police. The theft was first discovered when the store was opened this morning and a search of the building revealed the manner in which entrance had been gained. There is an

THE HONORED DEAD.

The honored is dead.

A nation that only a few hours ago was joyfully anticipating his speedy recovery, is bowed in humble but sorrowful submission to a Higher Power, inscrutable and inexorable. A people whose hope was that their sick executive would be spared, have seen him enter the Valley of the shadow of Death, and learn with ineffable grief that he is no more.

We mourn the death of a good, loyal, patriotic man, a staunch, self-sacrificing citizen, a wise, firm, dignified and generous president, who faithfully served his people during times when the nation needed such a man, and whose ability and integrity were rewarded by a second endorsement for the chief office of the nation, into which he had just entered.

Courageous and true, he guided his people with a firm and willing hand, ever ready to sacrifice his own interests for those of the people he loved and served, and in whose service he at last laid down his life, the victim of an assassin whose murderous hand was directed against this noble representative of law and liberty, peace and prosperity, harmony and happiness, the great and honored head of the greatest nation on earth.

He had not passed the milestone that marked the highest point in life's highway. He was yet in his prime, at the height of his most mature powers, and a man for whom the future promised only the greatest honors a willing people could bestow.

As a great and eloquent man once said: "While yet in love with life, and raptured with the world, he passed into silence and pathetic dust. And every life, no matter if its every hour is rich with love and every moment jeweled with a joy, will at its close become a tragedy as sad and deep and dark as can be woven from the warp and woof of mystery and death. This brave and tender man in every storm of life was oak and rock, but in the sunshine he was vine and flower."

President McKinley was beloved by the people of both north and south, east and west, and he had done what remained to be done to forever wipe out the factional feeling that existed as a memento of the civil war in his tear of the country in the spring he was given an ovation from one end of the country to the other, and all united in an effort to do him homage.

When the first news of his assassination reached the public, there was universal sorrow, and the solicitude expressed throughout the world, as well as in every nook and corner of our own country, show plainly that could the most studied eulogy, the esteem in which our dead president was held.

Thus ends the earthly career of one who was truly great. In life he bore himself with courage and dignity; through suffering he showed Christian fortitude; and resignation, and in death he has the tears of a people who loved and trusted him, and who know that though his star has set in its earthly firmament, it has risen with transcendent brightness in that mysterious eternity beyond.

THE NEW PRESIDENT.

The United States awoke today with a new president. Vice President Theodore Roosevelt, of New York, succeeded by virtue of his office and the constitution, President McKinley, and will serve the unexpired term of over three years. There is no reason to view the accession of President Roosevelt with anything but confidence. He is an ornament to the American nation, a man of unusual talents, courageous, cultured, patriotic and broad, who in scholarship, sincerity and public spiritiveness has no superior among the prominent men of the nation. His rise has been rapid, and his record is one of which we may well feel proud. He has borne himself throughout the ordeal of the past week with the dignity befitting one of his eminence and position, and has inspired the people at whose head he now finds himself with renewed confidence. President Roosevelt will give the people a clean, creditable administration. He will grow in popularity as we learn to more appreciate him and his sincerity of purpose, and perceive the results of his ability and determination to serve this great nation with honor to himself and the memory of his martyred predecessor, and credit to this great American people.

The reins of government are safe in his hands. Our prosperity and progress will continue.

United States Senator George L. Wellington, of Maryland, is fast becoming a modern Pariah, and in his misfortune has little sympathy from the people of his state or country. The Union League club, composed of the best Republicans to the state, has expelled him, and he will be asked to resign his seat in the United States senate as one wholly unworthy to longer hold it. In part their resolutions expelling him from membership in the Union club are:

"Whereas, The people of Maryland have learned with shame and loathing that George L. Wellington, a representative of this state in the United States senate, has countenanced the act of this traitor to his country and enemy of mankind by repeated and public expressions of indifference to the act and its results, and, Whereas, The said George L. Wellington is a member of this organization; therefore, be it Resolved, By the board of governors of the Union League club of Maryland, that we consider that the conduct of George L. Wellington demonstrates his unfitness to associate with loyal citizens or right minded men."

Fun, and some of it quite malignant, is poked at Mr. William Waldorf Astor because he says: "It is the cruellest calumny to state that I sought citizenship in England because I lost my love for the country of my birth. I emphatically repeat that I was driven to do so by a persistent onslaught of venomous treatment on the part of certain American newspapers. Otherwise I would have been heart and soul an American, in life and death."

Mr. Astor is not a public man, and has a right, one would think, to object to the widespread notoriety given him and all other rich men in the yellow journals. With public officials it is not so bad, and one cannot fully appreciate the extent to which this yellow journalism is carried on unless he is a steady reader of the papers. A man with any refinement or culture is fully justified in seeking to escape it, even if he has to go to Europe to do it.

The patriotism of the American people is invulnerable when aroused. Among the few instances of unpatriotic intemperance over the assassination of President McKinley are two from Illinois. A young lady of Union City, Tenn., clapped her hands and shouted for joy when she heard the President was shot. The people promptly held a meeting and invited her to leave Harrisburg, where she was visiting, which she did on the first train. A farmer who was cultivating at Ava, Ill., was soundly thrashed and then kicked to the outskirts, where his abrupt and simply augmented departure was watched by a deeply interested crowd of unsympathetic citizens.

The Virginia constitutional convention is still hammering away at a suffrage amendment. The latest one adopted provides that all voters shall reside in the state for two years preceding the election at which he shall vote. Voters are to be divided into three classes: First, old soldiers and all who have done military duty in any state; second, persons who pay taxes to the amount of $1; those who have a substantial interest in the community or who are employed for four months in each year. The most radical difference between the Daniel plan and the constitution is that the former requires all voters to pay the capital tax of $1.00, which the constitution exempts all who have done military duty from that payment.

There will be no county fair here this year, which may be a disappointment, but will be no surprise to many. It is said that the reason was that the grounds could not be secured except on conditions to which no projector of a county fair could agree, and expect to make any money, or even clear expenses. There is no man in Paducah trying to have anything unless he has it like other places. A county fair without horse racing, pool selling and refreshment selling might be the proper thing, but it wouldn't be a county fair.

There is a continuous performance in South Africa in which England and the Boers alternate in occupying the center of the stage, a little knock down and drag out in South Africa, and China is still nursing a sore head, but there is only one peace conference at the present writing. The latter is now divided over the proposition "Damn! damn! damn! carrying on of the South African war." And still the war goes on.

Paducah has prevented a most city-like appearance since the McKinley assassination. The newspapers crying the extras on the streets and the multitudes of people hurrying to the newspaper offices to see the latest bulletins from the President's bedside, and the general confusion and excitement everywhere added to the general condition of the streets made Paducah have the appearance of a regular metropolitan city.

The Democratic politicians in Texas seem to have had a quick way to get rich. They assessed every office holder, according to charges that the legislature has appointed a committee to investigate, ten per cent of his salary to hold his job. Some of the Democratic politicians in Kentucky might get a few pointers in Texas that would enable them to improve their own methods.

When Mayor Laug saw the statement that the board of health would "wait for a new mayor," he smiled blandly and remarked: "I have always accorded the board every assistance within my power in any sensible thing it ever undertook." Here he stopped. He evidently hasn't a very high opinion of the board's "sensible undertakings."

Prince Chun, the Chinese envoy to Germany, to express to the government the supposed regret of the murder of the German minister at Peking, was humiliated by being refused an audience with the mother of the deceased official. The Prince's visit was a very foolishly stroke of diplomatic hypocrisy, anyhow.

All parties antagonistic to the Republicans have combined in Ohio, but the Republican victory will nevertheless be so large that the state will hardly hold it.

It is announced that Hoovers are digging for gas at New Albany. They ought to find plenty of it to such close proximity to the Louisville organs of Goebel Democracy.

In promptly enumerating the items of news that it gives, a contemporary prudently refrains from mentioning those that it doesn't get.

Our metropolitan contemporary believes in variety. Yesterday's paper was dated the 13th, 12th and 11th on three different pages.

M'CORD CHOSEN.

KENTUCKY MAN ELECTED AS PRESIDENT OF THE SOUTHERN ASSOCIATION OF RAILROAD COMMISSIONERS.

Asheville, N. C., Sept. 14:—The Southern Railway Commissioners, in session here, elected the following officers for the ensuing year: O. C. Nichols, Kentucky, President; N. W. Baptist, Tennessee, vice-president; John A. Webb, Mississippi, Secretary; and W. M. Barrow, Louisiana, Assistant Secretary.

Hot Springs, Ark., was chosen as the next place of meeting.

The commissioners discussed at length the jurisdiction of railway commissioners, the uniform classification of freight rates, overcharges by railway companies and the difficulties experienced in collecting small amounts of overcharges and for collecting claims for loss and damages in transit. The question of rates on cotton was considered as one of the most important matters coming before railway commissioners.

DUKE OF YORK.

MEANER, THERE MAY BE A PILOT TO KILL HIM.

Washington, Sept. 14:—The United States secret service department has been asked to look out for a plot to assassinate the Duke of York when he visits Canada. Chief Wilkie, of the secret service, told the writer it would be improper to discuss the request of the Canadian authorities. From another source it is learned that this government will do all it can to learn if there is anything doing in American anarchist circles that imperils the life of the Duke and Duchess of York.

"A conspiracy to kill may be very fine and small," said a treasury official this morning. "It may exist in the mind of only two or three persons and they may be widely separated. Emma Goldman says an anarchist with moral in his mind, and so, hell, no one; that he is afraid to trust his secret to the most trustworthy; that any anarchist may be a spy. Even the worst may be bought. An anarchist may go out to kill, saying nothing to no one, it is best to detect such plots."

It is learned that since the assassination of King Humbert that nearly all foreign governments have kept spies among the anarchists in this country. These, of course, will be utilized to watch for any plots against the Duke. All the border towns will be watched closely. It would be a feat to conspire on this side. The Italian anarchists who set fire to King Humbert openly boasted of their part, but they could not be reached. If a plot against King was made in Buffalo, Chicago, Cleveland or Detroit the Canadian authorities could not reach across the line to punish the conspirators.

DAILY THOUGHT.

One more triumph for devil, and sorrow for angels.

One wrong more to man, one more insult to God!

—Robert Browning.

THE HONORED DEAD.

The president is dead.

A nation that only a few hours ago was joyfully celebrating his speedy recovery, is bowed in humble and sorrowful submission to a Higher Power, sheer and inexorable. A people whose hope was that their stricken executive would be spared, have seen him enter the Valley of the Shadow of Death, and learn with ineffable grief that he is no more.

We mourn the death of a good, loyal,

patriotic man, a staunch, steadfast citizen, a wise, firm, dignified and general president, who faithfully served his people during times when the nation needed such a man, and whose ability and integrity were rewarded by a second endorsement for the chief office of the nation, into which he had just entered.

Conspicuous and true, he guided his people with a firm and willing hand, ever ready to sacrifice his own interests for those of the people he loved and served, and in whose service he had laid down his life, the victim of an assassin whose murderous hand was directed against this noble representative of law and liberty, peace and prosperity, harmony and happiness, the great and honored head of the greatest nation on earth.

He had not passed the milestone that marked the highest point in life's highway. He was yet in his prime, at the height of his most mature powers, as a man for whom the future promised only the greatest honors a living people could bestow.

As a great and eloquent man once said: "While yet the love with life, and 'taped with the world, he passed into silence and pathetic dust.

And every life, no matter if its every hour is rich with love and every moment is a tragedy as sad and deep and dark as can be woven from the warp and woof of misery and could the most studied eulogy, the vision in which our dead president was held.

Thus ends the earthly career of one who was truly great. In life he bore himself with courage and dignity;

through suffering he showed Christian fortitude and resignation, and in death he has the tears of a people who loved and trusted him, and who know that though his star has set in its earthly firmament, it has risen with transcendent brightness in that mythical eternity beyond.

THE NEW PRESIDENT.

The United States awoke today with a new president. Vice President

Theodore Roosevelt, of New York, inaugurated by virtue of his office and constitution, President McKinley, and will serve the unexpired term of over three years. There is no reason to view the accession of President

Roosevelt with anything but confidence. He is an ornament to the American nation, a man of unusual talents, courageous, patriotic, and broad, who in scholarship, ability and public standing has no superior among the prominent men of the nation. His rise has been rapid, and his record is one of which we may well feel proud. He has borne himself throughout the ordeal of the past week with the dignity befitting

one of his eminence and position, and he inspired the people at whose head he now finds himself with resolved confidence. President Roosevelt will give the people a clean, creditable administration. He will grow in popularity as we learn to more appreciate him and his sincerity of purpose, and perceive the results of his ability and determination to serve this great nation with honor to himself and the memory of his married predecessor, and credit to this great American people.

The reins of government are safe in his hands. Our prosperity and progress will continue.

United States Senator George L.

Wellington, of Maryland, in his le-coming a telegram to his constituents, his manifesto has little sympathy for the people of his state or country.

The Union League club, composed of the best Republicans in the state, has expelled him, and he will be asked to resign his seat in the United States

Senate as one wholly unworthy to longer hold it. In part their resolutions expelling him from membership in the Union club are: "Whereas,

The people of Maryland have learned with shame and loathing that George

L. Wellington, a representative of this state in the United States Senate, has condemned the act of this traitor to his country and enemy of mankind by repeated and public expressions of indifference to the act and its results, and, whereas, The said George L.

Wellington is a member of this organization; therefore, be it Resolved,

By the board of governors of the Union League club of Maryland, that we consider that the conduct of George L. Wellington demonstrates his unfitness to associate with loyal citizens or right hearted men."

Fun, and some of it quite malignant, is being done at the name of Antislavery. It is the cruelest calumny to state that I sought citizenship in England because I lost my love for the country of my birth.

I emphatically repeat that I was driven to do so by a persistent onslaught of venomous treatment on the part of certain American newspapers. Otherwise, I would have been heart and soul an American, in life and death."

Mr. Astor is not a public man, and has a right, one would think, to object to the widespread notoriety given him and all other rich men in the yellow journals. With public officials it is not so bad, and one cannot fully appreciate the extent to which this yellow journalism is carried on unless he is a steady reader of the papers.

A man with any refinement or culture is fully justified in seeking to escape

it, even if he has to go to Europe to do it.

The patriotism of the American people is inviolable when aroused.

Among the few instances of patriotic intemperance over the assassination of President McKinley are two from Illinois. A young lady of Union City,

Tenn., clapped her hands and shouted for joy when she heard the President was shot. The people promptly held a meeting and invited her to leave

Illinois, where she was visiting, which she did on the first train.

A farmer who was felicitating at Aveille, was suddenly thrashed and then kicked to the outside, where his absolutely and simply segregated department was watched by a deeply interested crowd of sympathetic citizens.

JEWISH HOLIDAY.

LARGELY ATTENDED SERVICES AT TEMPLE ISRAEL.

The services at Temple Israel last night were most impressive. Rabbi Alexander, the young divine who preached his maiden sermon as pastor of the Temple, made an excellent impression, and his eloquent discourse proved him to be a young man of great ability and much promise. A large crowd was out to hear him, and the music was as fine as any ever heard in the city. Last evening at sunset the Jewish holiday began, and today all the stores have been closed, but will reopen again this evening at sunset.

FAILED TO PASS.

PROHIBITION CANDIDATE DOES NOT RECEIVE REQUIREMENT PER CENT.

County Clerk Chas. Graham has received a notice from Superintendent of Public Instruction McChesney saying that Prof. Luther Rice, the prohibitionist candidate for county superintendent, failed to successfully pass the examinations. His per cent. was 80 and 3-11. This will of course disqualify him for the race, and the prohibitionist party will be without a candidate for that office.

OTHER THINGS BESIDES A JAG.

An itinerant umbrella mender was arrested this morning by officer Hart for being drunk. He was searched at the station and some very odd and unusual things, very much out of place, were found in the pockets of his tattered coat. The first thing that came to light was a big twist of tobacco, then some string and pieces of wire. Next about half a raw fish was taken out and then some raw beef made its appearance. The meat had begun to decay and the smell that arose was anything but pleasant. He was placed in the court room to air and sleep his jag off.

MADE DANGEROUS REMARKS.

A crippled elgar maker who had just arrived in the city, made a remark at the St. Nicholas House last night that came near causing him trouble. There was a crowd out in front of the hotel discussing the illness of McKinley when the elgar maker remarked that neither McKinley or the monopolists had done him any good and therefore he cared not if Mr. McKinley did die. Some of the bystanders took the remark as an insult and started for the man. Several of the older persons about stopped the threatened difficulty and the elgar maker hastened away.

It was a misunderstanding in signals when the boats were passing each other near the Big Four bridge, the former barely touching the Kanawha, after both had backed a while. The other close call was occasioned by Harvey Smith getting his herby-gerly fishing net caught in the Tell City's wheel as she was turning it to "oil up" just before starting. He was carried around in the wheel twice but got out of the scrape unhurt.

Starting a Busy Fall Campaign.

New Fall Merchandise Comes Tumbling in Every Day.

We are now ready, and signs point to the busiest selling we have ever known.

The fact that our business has been growing larger is evidence of the public's appreciation and clearly indicates that our prices are lowest and the values the best.

A Grand Stock of New Fall Dress Goods.

We are starting the season with the largest stock of Dress Goods we have ever shown before.

We took lots of pains in the purchase of these Dress Goods. Some from this factory, some from that factory, some from this importer, some from that importer, picking the best here, yonder and wherever the best was to be had.

We offer you the choice of this collection at prices low, consistent with the quality. You'll find them worthy qualities of a special saving.

September is the time to begin to cast about for your best fall dress, and we assure you of our preparedness and willingness to work to your best interest when you are ready to see, or buy Dress Goods.

We would attempt a description with detailed prices, but to see and finger these goods is necessary to the formation of a right opinion of their true merit and worthiness. You are cordially invited to look them over.

Remnant Selling.

We have heap and piles of remnants resulting from former large sales.

You can now buy the remnants considerably under price.

Separate Skirts and Coat Suits.

Our stock is one grand succession of really special values, merely reading of them will not convey the favorable impression made possible by the splendid quality of the skirts and suits themselves.

We simply ask you to lay your separate skirt or coat suit want before us and we will endeavor to make it to your liking and advantage to let us supply your separate skirt or coat suit wants.

New Fall Millinery.

This first showing of new fall ready-to-wear hats is memorable for its variety as well as its richness and beauty.

There has never before been a time in our business history when the ready-to-wear hats were as striking as this season.

We are now preparing for our "Millinery opening" which will be the Millinery event of the season.

Clothing.

Boys' serviceable suits for school and dress at lower prices than others will sell 'em to you—it is a broad assertion, but measure us up to it and you'll find it true.

GOOD CLOTHING FOR MEN.

We owe you as much style, as much perfect fit, and as good clothes as your money can command, and we'll see that you get them all at a really substantial saving.

Shoes.

If money is any account at all you can't afford to pay others more for shoes than we'll sell them to you for.

Boys' and girls' school shoes 75c to $1.50 pair.

Women's solid leather shoes, start at 98c and range to $3.00 pair.

Starting a Busy Fall Campaign.

New Fall Merchandise Comes Tumbling in Every Day.

We are now ready, and signs point to the busiest selling we have ever known.

The fact that our business has been growing larger is evidence of the public's appreciation and clearly indicates that our prices are lowest and the values the best.

A Grand Stock of New Fall Dress Goods.

We are starting the season with the largest stock of Dress Goods we have ever shown before.

We took lots of pains in the purchase of these Dress Goods. Some from this factory, some from that factory, some from this importer, some from that importer, picking the best here, yonder and wherever the best was to be had.

We offer you the choice of this collection at prices low, consistent with the quality. You'll find them worthy qualities of a special saving.

September is the time to begin to cast about for your best fall dress, and we assure you of our preparedness and willingness to work to your best interest when you are ready to see, or buy Dress Goods.

We would attempt a description with detailed prices, but to see and finger these goods is necessary to the formation of a right opinion of their true merit and worthiness. You are cordially invited to look them over.

Remnant Selling.

We have heap and piles of remnants resulting from former large sales.

You can now buy the remnants considerably under price.

Separate Skirts and Coat Suits.

Our stock is one grand succession of really special values, merely reading of them will not convey the favorable impression made possible by the splendid quality of the skirts and suits themselves.

We simply ask you to lay your separate skirt or coat suit want before us and we will endeavor to make it to your liking and advantage to let us supply your separate skirt or coat suit wants.

New Fall Millinery.

This first showing of new fall ready-to-wear hats is memorable for its variety as well as its richness and beauty.

There has never before been a time in our business history when the ready-to-wear hats were as striking as this season.

We are now preparing for our "Millinery opening" which will be the Millinery event of the season.

Clothing.

Boys' serviceable suits for school and dress at lower prices than others will sell 'em to you—it is a broad assertion, but measure us up to it and you'll find it true.

GOOD CLOTHING FOR MEN.

We owe you as much style, as much perfect fit, and as good clothes as your money can command, and we'll see that you get them all at a really substantial saving.

JEWISH HOLIDAY.

LARGELY ATTENDED SERVICES AT TEMPLE ISRAEL.

The services at Temple Israel last night were most impressive. Rabbi Alexander, the young divine who preached his maiden sermon as pastor of the Temple, made an excellent impression, and his eloquent discourse proved him to be a young man of great ability and much promise. A large crowd was out to hear him, and the music was as fine as any ever heard in the city. Last evening at sunset the Jewish holiday began, and today all the stores have been closed, but will reopen again this evening at sunset.

FAILED TO PASS.

PROHIBITION CANDIDATE DOES NOT RECEIVE REQUISITE PER CENT.

County Clerk Chas. Graham has received a notice from Superintendent of Public Instruction McChesney saying that Prof. Luther Rice, the Prohibitionist candidate for county school superintendent, failed to successfully pass the examinations. His percentage was 50 and 5-11. This will of course disqualify him for the race, and the Prohibitionist party will be without a candidate for that office.

COUNTY COURT.

The appraisal of the estate of the late Major T. T. Jones, made by the appraisers, Messrs. F. H. Jones, George A. Wright, and W. H. Patterson, shows personal property amounting to $4,944.30, with other property, including interest in the firm, swelling the total to $13,391.36.

Articles of incorporation have been filed for the "Dr. Taylor company," with Messrs. Lawrence Dillman, Hal Walters and Max Wolf as incorporators, each holding three shares each, valued at $100. The company will October first begin the manufacture of "Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey Whiskey."

Miss Mary Mohan was granted final discharge as administratrix of the estate of the late Mrs. Elizabeth Mohan.

OTHER THINGS BESIDES A JAG.

An itinerant umbrella mender was arrested this morning by officer Hart for being drunk. He was searched at the station and some very odd and unusual things, very much out of place, were found in the pockets of his tattered coat. The first thing that came to light was a big twist of tobacco, then some string and pieces of wire. Next about half a raw fish was taken out and then some raw beef made its appearance. The meat had begun to decay and the smell that arose was anything but pleasant. He was placed in the court room to air and sleep his jag off.

NOTICE.

All persons knowing themselves indebted to the firm of Hank Bros. and Jones are requested to call at our office and settle same before October 1, 1901, as the interests of the late T. T. Jones must be wound up at once. Thanking the public for past favors and soliciting a continuance of same, We are yours respectfully,

The Louisville Post of yesterday says: Two accidents were narrowly averted in the harbor yesterday afternoon, the first being the escape in collision of the ferry steamer Sunshine with the Carroll packet, Big Kanawha. It was a misunderstanding in signals when the boats were passing each other near the Big Four bridge, the former barely touching the Kanawha, after both had backed a while. The other close call was occasioned by Harvey Smith getting his horn-gurdy fishing net caught in the Tell City's wheel as she was turning it to "oil up" just before starting. He was carried around in the wheel twice but got out of the scrape unhurt.

GOOD CASE FOR CHARITY.

A case of poverty and neglect has come to light in the city. Mrs. Josie Hines, who was burned out of her home in Mechanicburg some time ago, and who is now living in a small house on North Ninth street near the cordage factory, is without any resources whatever and has not even a bed to sleep on. She has four small children and one who is very ill, and all the little child has to sleep on is an old quilt spread on the bare floor.

One of her sons works at the cordage factory and he is very busy supporting the family. The officers on that beat were informed of her condition and took up a collection to pay her house rent.

It is a good case for the charity workers, and they should lose no time if they desire to do her good.

Trifle soup will be on the elaborate bill of fare at the New Richmond bar tonight.
